This material was produced by the California Department of Public Health's Network for a Healthy California, with funding from the USDA Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (formerly the Food Stamp Program). These institutions are equal opportunity providers and employers. In California, food stamps provide assistance to low-income households, and can help buy nutritious foods for better health. For food stamp information, call 1-530-225-5767. For important nutrition information visit www.cachampionsforchange.net.
